NOTES

1. The Pastoral Council is to organize all activities during the period by ensuring the following:
 - a. That all functionaries are adequately prepared for their roles
 - b. Organize at least TWO meetings/practice sessions for all participating in the Holy Week activities (one in March and the other before Palm Sunday). Practice sessions to be anchored by Fr. John. The groups may include:
 - i. Readers
 - ii. Music department
 - iii. Sacristans
 - iv. Servers

- v. Decoration department
 - vi. Eucharistic Ministers etc.
 - c. Make available the list of readers during the Holy Week ceremonies
 - d. Double check with Fr. John to be sure that all materials required for the Holy Week are available
 - e. That the Church is prepared and well decorated for the Holy Week ceremonies according to the Liturgical norms
 - f. That all groups are well coordinated
 - g. That songs proper to the celebrations are selected
2. The diocese has designated the Schoenstatt Chapel as a place to visit and obtain plenary indulgence for the Jubilee Year. A visit to the Jubilee Cross there is to be organized for our Parish and St. Machan's. A date will be communicated in due course.
 3. For all enquiries concerning any activity please contact Fr. John.
